

WOMAN IS FOUND DYING ON FLOOR

Mrs. G. G. Harding Dies Saturday From a Bullet Wound; Pistol Found.

Lying nearly 16 hours after being wounded in the head, Mrs. G. G. Harding died Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock at a local hospital, where she was carried Friday night at 8:30 o'clock, after being found lying on the floor of the dining room at her home, 817 West Missouri street.

An automatic pistol and an empty shell were found near the body by police officers Brown and Simpson, who entered the room a short time after the report of the shot was heard by neighbors.

According to the story he told police officers, Mrs. Harding's husband, Clyde G. Harding, of the firm of Harding & McKee, customs brokers, returned home about 8:30 o'clock, found the body of his wife lying on the floor. He immediately notified the police.

The body is at McBean, Simmons & Hamilton's undertaking parlors, on North Stanton street.

COURTHOUSE ELECTRIC PLANT ESTIMATED TO COST $15,000

It will cost approximately $15,000 to install an electric plant for the new county court house. This fact was learned by the county commissioners in a special session Friday afternoon. The Hamilton company of Dallas submitted the lowest bid for installing the generators. No action was taken by the commissioners.

The commissioners appointed the following school trustees at the Friday session: Jose Madrid, Fabens; C. E. Kellogg, Clint, and F. G. Candelaria, Ysleta.

PIANO FALLS DOWN STAIRS

Col. Charles F. Hunt and Alice Casey Hunt have instituted suit in the county court for $350 against the Longwell Transfer company for permitting an Ivers Pond mahogany piano to fall down the stairs at 1309 Montana street. The petition states that the piano was moved from the Hunt residence near Washington park to 1309 Montana street and, while being taken up the stairway, fell a distance of five feet, ruining the interior and marring the outside.
